Alexander Severus began German Campaign

234

Alexander mustered his forces along the Rhineland frontier in 234. The army crossed the Rhine into Germany in a pontoon bridge. Alexander sought to buy off the Germans. The army was also demoralized by Alexander's attempts to reduce military expenditure and limit their pay & bonus.

A group of young aristocrats organized a seditious resentment in the province of North Africa into a plan of action. They ordered their tenants and retainers to gather at T H Y S D R U S where the procurator was supervising the revenues from the olive harvest. Choosing a suitable moment, the young aristocrats went up to the man & killed him. They then approached the governor of the Province who was also in THYSDRVs and obliged from Adam to imperial people. The former in question was Mexico Antonio Garcia Sanguinetti, Doctor F. It returned to Carthage. From there he sent messages also friends in Rome, where the sent to Madrid to accompany him as emperor.

They gave back the aged ^{And his 46-year} ~~And his 46-year~~ old man (Proctor II) the title of Augustus, and set about removing prisoners in support of the pair.
